

AFROS & AUDIO VIRTUAL PODCAST FESTIVAL

Budget That

DESCRIPTION:

Podcasting can be costly. However, it doesn't have to be. In this session, participants will learn about tips, hacks, software, and apps - that can help aspiring and existing podcasters cut costs. Hear about things that will open your eyes to possibilities and options available to create a quality podcast while being cost-conscious.

Takeaways:

- Awareness of ways to cut podcasting costs.
- Options for free and/or reduced cost apps and software to produce and promote their podcast. Action steps to take to make their podcasting costs more budget friendly.
- Confidence to try new things to help them create their best podcast.

FACILITATOR:

Skorpyen November has been in the podcast industry since 2017 managing, producing, and hosting three of her own podcasts. She created her first podcast with the desire to fill the gap of stories, ideas, experiences to which she could identify with and/or relate, and with the desire to give a voice to stories, experiences, etc. for others like her. In 2021 she began sharing the knowledge she has acquired through her own podcasting journey with others. She believes that fear is either a deterrent or motivator and is her provocation for helping people alleviate their fear of podcasting and start their own podcasting journey.

LOGISTICS:

Date/Time: Sunday, November 14th: 2:00 PM - 2:55 PM

Format: Workshop and Q&A

